

GARAVOT

BROAD • VOD • PORTAL • RECORDER

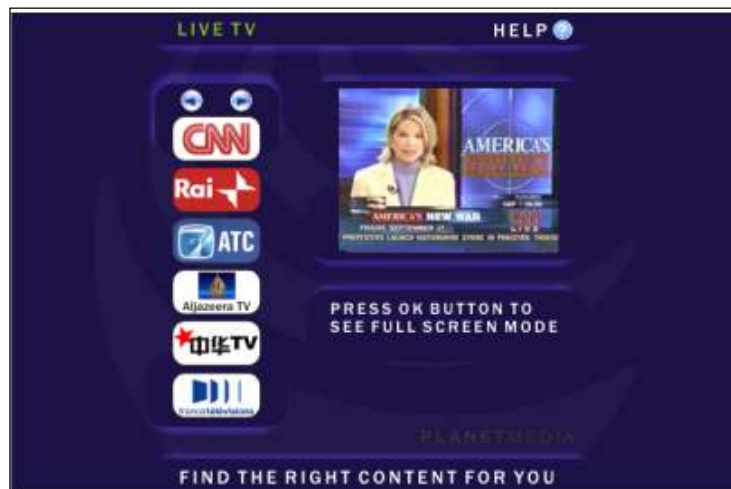

GARAVOT RECORDER

Garavot Recorder provide a complete system for capture and ingest digital video into a secure, metadata-rich media repository for searching, previewing, and distribution.

Reliable component of the Garavot infrastructure used by organizations to capture and ingest media content. It works as a scalable solution from one to many channels of concurrent capture jobs. The system provide a complete architecture to manage and monitoring the recording process.

The Garavot Recorder is developed on Garavot Core Technology the proprietary product for content & media asset management.

Main features include:

- Ingestion of audio/video contents and of related metadata from content providers.
- Ingestion can be either from live sources (SDI, Composite, ASI) or IP networks
- Metadata classification
- H.264 , MPEG-1,MPEG-2, Windows Media supported
- Centralized GUI administration
- Provide preview, schedule and record, logging and monitoring functionality
- Digital recording throughput up of 100Mps
- Open standard supported

Garavot Core Technology allows easy integration in any IT environment.

